Subject: Tribal Cultural Resources Pursuant to AB 52 – Revised Environmental Impact Report for MoVal 2040 – The Moreno Valley Comprehensive General Plan Update – Municipal Code and Zoning (including Zoning Atlas) Amendments, and Climate Action Plan

Dear Ms. Garcia:

The City of Moreno Valley is in the process of the readoption of the 2040 General Plan and the Change of Zone (including an update to the Zoning Atlas) and Municipal Code Update, and the revision and adoption of the Climate Action Plan, which is subject to the California Environmental Quality Act (CEQA) and Assembly Bill 52. A Notice of Preparation of a Revised Environmental Impact Report (EIR) was publicly released on July 30, 2024, and a Revised EIR will be prepared for the project. The City recognizes the importance of preserving tribal cultural resources and respectfully invites you to consult on and participate in the review process for this project, pursuant to Public Resources Code §21080.3.1(d).

Below please find a description of the proposed project, and a map, attached as Exhibit 1, showing the project location.

Project Description:
In June 2021, the City Council of the City of Moreno Valley ("City Council") approved and adopted the City's 2040 General Plan Update ("2040 General Plan"), a Change of Zone and Municipal Code Update, and its Climate Action Plan ("CAP") and certified an EIR, State Clearinghouse No. 2020039022, as having been prepared in compliance with CEQA in connection with the approvals. A lawsuit entitled Sierra Club v. The City of Moreno Valley, Riverside Superior Court Case No. CVRI2103300, challenged the validity of the CAP and the EIR. In May 2024, the City Council set aside the 2021 approvals and certification, based on a March 2024 ruling and judgment of the court (the "Ruling").

The Project, known as MoVal 2040, consists of the readoption of the 2040 General Plan and the Change of Zone (including an update to the Zoning Atlas) and Municipal Code Update, and the revision and adoption of the CAP.

Project Location:
Moreno Valley is located within the northwestern portion of Riverside County, within the Inland Empire region of California. Moreno Valley is located approximately 63 miles east of downtown Los Angeles, 49 miles east of Irvine, and 43 miles west of Palm Springs. State Route 60, which runs through the northern portion of Moreno Valley (east and west direction), and Interstate 215, which runs in proximity to the westerly city limits (north and south direction), serve to connect the city to other communities throughout the region. The city is accessible via public transportation by rail, through Metrolink located approximately one-half mile west of the City limits, and aircraft at the March Inland Port located at the March Air Reserve Base, which is south and west of the City limits.

Pursuant to PRC § 21080.3.1 (b), the Agua Caliente Band of Cahuilla Indians has 30 days from the receipt of this letter to request consultation, in writing, with the City of Moreno Valley. If you provide the City of Moreno Valley with confidential information subject to Public Resources Code §21082.3(c), Government Code §6254.10, or Government Code Section §6254(r), we request that it be explicitly labeled and packaged to prevent inadvertent public disclosure.

If you have any questions, please contact the Community Development Department, Planning Division at (951) 413-3206 or planningnotices@moval.org.

Sincerely,

Robert Flores

Subject: Tribal Cultural Resources Pursuant to AB 52 – Revised Environmental Impact Report for MoVal 2040 – The Moreno Valley Comprehensive General Plan Update – Municipal Code and Zoning (including Zoning Atlas) Amendments, and Climate Action Plan

Dear Dr. McCleary:

The City of Moreno Valley is in the process of the readoption of the 2040 General Plan and the Change of Zone (including an update to the Zoning Atlas) and Municipal Code Update, and the revision and adoption of the Climate Action Plan, which is subject to the California Environmental Quality Act (CEQA) and Assembly Bill 52. A Notice of Preparation of a Revised Environmental Impact Report (EIR) was publicly released on July 30, 2024, and a Revised EIR will be prepared for the project. The City recognizes the importance of preserving tribal cultural resources and respectfully invites you to consult on and participate in the review process for this project, pursuant to Public Resources Code §21080.3.1(d).

Below please find a description of the proposed project, and a map, attached as Exhibit 1, showing the project location.

Project Description:
In June 2021, the City Council of the City of Moreno Valley ("City Council") approved and adopted the City's 2040 General Plan Update ("2040 General Plan"), a Change of Zone and Municipal Code Update, and its Climate Action Plan ("CAP") and certified an EIR, State Clearinghouse No. 2020039022, as having been prepared in compliance with CEQA in connection with the approvals. A lawsuit entitled Sierra Club v. The City of Moreno Valley, Riverside Superior Court Case No. CVRI2103300, challenged the validity of the CAP and the EIR. In May 2024, the City Council set aside the 2021 approvals and certification, based on a March 2024 ruling and judgment of the court (the "Ruling").

The Project, known as MoVal 2040, consists of the readoption of the 2040 General Plan and the Change of Zone (including an update to the Zoning Atlas) and Municipal Code Update, and the revision and adoption of the CAP.

Dear Mr. Scott:

The City of Moreno Valley is in the process of the readoption of the 2040 General Plan and the Change of Zone (including an update to the Zoning Atlas) and Municipal Code Update, and the revision and adoption of the Climate Action Plan, which is subject to Senate Bill 18. The City recognizes the importance of preserving tribal cultural resources and respectfully invites you to consult on and participate in the review process for this project, pursuant to Government Code 65300 et. seq.

Below please find a description of the proposed project, and a map, attached as Exhibit 1, showing the project location.

Project Description:
In June 2021, the City Council of the City of Moreno Valley ("City Council") approved and adopted the City's 2040 General Plan Update ("2040 General Plan"), a Change of Zone and Municipal Code Update, and its Climate Action Plan ("CAP") and certified an EIR, State Clearinghouse No. 2020039022, as having been prepared in compliance with CEQA in connection with the approvals. A lawsuit entitled Sierra Club v. The City of Moreno Valley, Riverside Superior Court Case No. CVRI2103300, challenged the validity of the CAP and the EIR. In May 2024, the City Council set aside the 2021 approvals and certification, based on a March 2024 ruling and judgment of the court (the "Ruling").

The Project, known as MoVal 2040, consists of the readoption of the 2040 General Plan and the Change of Zone (including an update to the Zoning Atlas) and Municipal Code Update, and the revision and adoption of the CAP.

Project Location:
Moreno Valley is located within the northwestern portion of Riverside County, within the Inland Empire region of California. Moreno Valley is located approximately 63 miles east of downtown Los Angeles, 49 miles east of Irvine, and 43 miles west of Palm Springs. State Route 60, which runs through the northern portion of Moreno Valley (east and west direction), and Interstate 215, which runs in proximity to the westerly city limits (north and south direction), serve to connect the city to other communities throughout the region. The city is accessible via public transportation by rail, through Metrolink located approximately one-half mile west of the City limits, and aircraft at the March Inland Port located at the March Air Reserve Base, which is south and west of the City limits.

Pursuant to California Public Resources Code §65352.3 – §65352.4 (Senate Bill 18), Quechan Tribe of the Fort Yuma Reservation has 90 days from the receipt of this letter to request consultation, in writing, with the City of Moreno Valley. If you provide the City of Moreno Valley with confidential information subject to, Government Code §65453, we request that it be explicitly labeled and packaged to prevent inadvertent public disclosure.

If you have any questions, please contact the Community Development Department, Planning Division at (951) 413-3206 or planningnotices@moval.org.

Sincerely,

Robert Flores

Subject: Tribal Cultural Resources pursuant to Senate Bill 18 – Revised Environmental Impact Report for MoVal 2040 – The Moreno Valley Comprehensive General Plan Update – Municipal Code and Zoning (including Zoning Atlas) Amendments, and Climate Action Plan

Dear Mr. Walker:

The City of Moreno Valley is in the process of the readoption of the 2040 General Plan and the Change of Zone (including an update to the Zoning Atlas) and Municipal Code Update, and the revision and adoption of the Climate Action Plan, which is subject to Senate Bill 18. The City recognizes the importance of preserving tribal cultural resources and respectfully invites you to consult on and participate in the review process for this project, pursuant to Government Code 65300 et. seq.

Below please find a description of the proposed project, and a map, attached as Exhibit 1, showing the project location.

Project Description:
In June 2021, the City Council of the City of Moreno Valley ("City Council") approved and adopted the City's 2040 General Plan Update ("2040 General Plan"), a Change of Zone and Municipal Code Update, and its Climate Action Plan ("CAP") and certified an EIR, State Clearinghouse No. 2020039022, as having been prepared in compliance with CEQA in connection with the approvals. A lawsuit entitled Sierra Club v. The City of Moreno Valley, Riverside Superior Court Case No. CVRI2103300, challenged the validity of the CAP and the EIR. In May 2024, the City Council set aside the 2021 approvals and certification, based on a March 2024 ruling and judgment of the court (the "Ruling").

The Project, known as MoVal 2040, consists of the readoption of the 2040 General Plan and the Change of Zone (including an update to the Zoning Atlas) and Municipal Code Update, and the revision and adoption of the CAP.

Project Location:
Moreno Valley is located within the northwestern portion of Riverside County, within the Inland Empire region of California. Moreno Valley is located approximately 63 miles east of downtown Los Angeles, 49 miles east of Irvine, and 43 miles west of Palm Springs. State Route 60, which runs through the northern portion of Moreno Valley (east and west direction), and Interstate 215, which runs in proximity to the westerly city limits (north and south direction), serve to connect the city to other communities throughout the region. The city is accessible via public transportation by rail, through Metrolink located approximately one-half mile west of the City limits, and aircraft at the March Inland Port located at the March Air Reserve Base, which is south and west of the City limits.

Pursuant to California Public Resources Code §65352.3 – §65352.4 (Senate Bill 18), the Serrano Nation of Mission Indians Tribe has 90 days from the receipt of this letter to request consultation, in writing, with the City of Moreno Valley.
