Project Title: Homestead Substation Rebuild Project

Project Applicant: Silicon Valley Power

Project Location (include county): City of Santa Clara, Santa Clara County, CA

Project Description:

SVP is proposing to rebuild the existing Homestead Substation at its current site, northwest of the intersection of Kiely Blvd and Homestead Rd, and would increase substation capacity to deliver 12 kV distribution power within the substation's service area. An existing 60 kV transmission line would be relocated within the substation property and unneeded poles and conductor would be removed. Construction is estimated to take approximately 30 months and would occur in two phases.
