Project Location – City: Corte Madera

Project Location – County: Marin

CEQA Region: Unincorporated

Description of Nature, Purpose, and Benefits of Project:

This pollinator garden project will significantly enhance habitat quality on the school campus by introducing native plants that support local pollinators and wildlife. By creating a diverse and thriving ecosystem, the garden will offer crucial resources for bees, butterflies, and other beneficial insects. Additionally, it will strengthen the ecological connectivity between the school grounds and the adjacent open space, promoting greater movement and interaction among wildlife.
