Phase One Environmental Site Assessment

14320 Palm Drive Desert Hot Springs, California 92240

Executive Summary

This report presents the results of a Phase I Environmental Site Assessment (ESA) performed by Pacific Environmental Company (PEC) for the vacant property located at 14320 Palm Drive in the City of Desert Hot Springs, in the County of Riverside, California (the Subject Property).

The Phase I ESA was conducted in conformance with the requirements of American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM) Designation E 1527-21 and All Appropriate Inquiries (AAI) Final Rule 40 CFR Part 312. On November 1, 2021, ASTM International approved a new version of ASTM E1527 (ASTM E1527-21), which governs how Phase I ESAs are conducted to meet U.S. EPA's All Appropriate Inquiries (AAI) standard for liability protection under the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation, and Liability Act (CERCLA).

The ESA included a visual inspection of the Subject Property and surrounding areas; a review of historical records of the Subject Property and adjacent properties; interviews with persons familiar with the Subject Property history; and a search and review of available Federal, state, local, and tribal environmental files and databases. The purpose of this ESA is to identify recognized environmental conditions (RECs) at the Subject Property.

Subject Property Description

The Subject Property is the County owned vacant and fenced land located behind the Desert Hot Springs Library and the County of Riverside Office building located on the east side of Palm Drive. The Riverside County Assessor identifies property as assessor parcel number 656-040-061.

There are no current indications of improper hazardous materials storage, spills or significant staining that were noted during our inspection at the Subject Property and neither the current, nor past use suggest that the Subject Property generates or generated quantities of hazardous wastes that would be of concern.

Surrounding Uses

North of the Subject Property there is a retail shopping center anchored by a Vons Grocery Store. There is a Del Taco, McDonald's, Starbucks and several other small retailers and service businesses.

South of the Subject Property across Park Lane, there is an RV park, a City park with a soccer complex know as Mission Springs Park, a hotel and spa along Palm Drive to the southwest and the Desert Hot Springs Corporate Yard to the southeast, which is down-gradient.

East of the Subject Property there is a the Desert Springs Middle School and their athletic fields.

West of the Subject Property is occupied by the County of Riverside Behavioral Health and Nutrition Services Offices and the Desert Hot Springs Library.

Summary of Regulatory Database Research

Environmental Data Resources (EDR) was contracted to provide a current database search of public lists of sites that generate, store, treat or dispose of hazardous materials or sites for which a release or incident has occurred. There are no listings for the Subject Property in the EDR database report.

Several off-site properties of environmental interest in the vicinity of the Subject Property were identified in the EDR report and were evaluated as part of the assessment.

Our review of known cases of contamination found within a one-mile radius of the subject property found no reasons to suspect any off-site sources of contamination have adversely impacted the Subject Property.

The Regional Water Quality Control Board, Riverside County, Department of Toxic Substances Control, and South Coast Air Quality Management District were contacted regarding permits, site investigation files, air emissions, hazardous materials, underground storage tank, and industrial waste discharge records for the Subject Property. There were no files at these agencies for the Subject Property.

Conclusions, Opinions and Recommendations

Pacific Environmental Company has performed a Phase 1 Environmental Site Assessment in conformance with the scope and limitations of ASTM Practice E1527-21 of the property located at 14320 Palm Drive in the City of Desert Hot Springs, in the County of Riverside, California, California. Any exceptions to, or deletions from this practice are described herein.

Recognized environmental conditions (RECs) are defined by ASTM as the presence or likely presence of any hazardous substances or petroleum products in, on, or at a property: (1) due to release to the environment; (2) under conditions indicative of a release to the environment; or (3) under conditions that pose a material threat of a future release to the environment.

Pacific Environmental Company did not identify any RECs during the course of this assessment.

The preceding summary is intended for informational purposes only. Reading of the full body of this report is recommended. The Federal AAI rule and ASTM E1527-21 require that the Phase I ESA report include the following declarations by the Environmental Professional who completed the assessment.

1. I declare that, to the best of my professional knowledge and belief, I meet the definition of Environmental Professional as defined in 40 CFR §312.10.

2. I have the specific qualifications based on education, training, and experience to assess a property of the nature, history, and setting of the Subject Property. I have developed and performed the all appropriate inquiries in conformance with the standards and practices set forth in 40 CFR §312.

Michael J. Lyssy Registered Environmental Property Assessor

Introduction

Purpose

An environmental site assessment (ESA) is intended for use on a voluntary basis by parties who wish to assess the environmental condition of commercial real estate taking into account commonly known and reasonably ascertainable information. While use of this process is intended to constitute all appropriate inquiries for purposes of the Landowner Liability Protections (LLPs), it is not intended that its use be limited to that purpose. An ESA is intended primarily as an approach to conducting an inquiry designed to identify recognized environmental conditions in connection with a property.

Recognized environmental conditions (RECs) are defined by ASTM as (1) the presence of hazardous substances or petroleum due to a release to the environment; (2) the likely presence of hazardous substances or petroleum products due to a likely release to the environment; or (3) the presence of hazardous substances or petroleum products under conditions that pose a material threat of a future release to the environment.

The ASTM 1527-21 definition for REC includes a discussion for further clarification: "For the purposes of this definition, "likely" is that which is neither certain nor proved, but can be expected or believed by a reasonable observer based on the logic and/or experience of the environmental professional, and/or available evidence, as stated in the report to support the opinions given therein. A de minimis condition is not a recognized environmental condition."

Controlled Recognized Environmental Condition (CREC) is a term introduced in the ASTM E1527 standard for Phase I Environmental Site Assessments (ESAs). The Controlled REC concept was introduced to address contaminated sites that have received risk-based regulatory closure, where no further remediation is required but residual contamination still exists at a site and the property is subject to some sort of control or use restriction.

A Historical Recognized Environmental Condition (HREC) refers to a past release that has been remediated to below "residential" standards and given regulatory closure with no use restrictions. HREC is defined by ASTM as "a previous release of hazardous substances or petroleum products affecting the subject property that has been addressed to the satisfaction of the applicable regulatory authority or authorities and meeting unrestricted use criteria established by the applicable regulatory authority or authorities without subjecting the subject property to any controls (for example, activity and use limitations or other property use limitations). A historical recognized environmental condition."

The HREC category is distinct from the CREC, which applies to sites that have received regulatory closure but are still subject to controls. The determination of whether an environmental condition is a recognized REC, CREC or HREC lies with the environmental professional, and depends upon how the condition impacts the current or future use of the property.

De minimis conditions, a condition that generally does not present a threat to human health or the environment and that generally would not be the subject of an enforcement action if brought to the attention of appropriate governmental agencies, are not recognized environmental conditions.

This report is based on a preliminary study of the current and historical use of the Subject Property and surrounding areas. The assessment included a visual inspection of the Subject Property and adjacent properties, a review of regulatory agency records, historic record sources, and interviews with persons knowledgeable of the Subject Property. Also included in this report are maps, diagrams and photographs pertaining to the Subject Property.

Detailed Scope of Services

This report was prepared generally in accordance with the American Society for Testing Materials Standard E1527-21 Phase I Environmental Site Assessment Process.

There are four components to the process of an ESA: records review; Subject Property reconnaissance; interviews; and reporting. This ESA considered the following readily available sources for information concerning environmentally significant current and past uses of the Subject Property and the surrounding properties.

- Detailed search and review of available information and records in the possession of the current ownership or records made available by regulatory agencies or other involved Federal agencies. Relevant information and records typically include additional study information (e.g., planning and designs; surveys for asbestos-containing material [ACM], lead-based paint [LBP], radon, and polychlorinated biphenyls [PCBs]) necessary to determine the environmental condition of the Subject Property and surrounding properties.
- Review of reasonably obtainable Federal, state, local, and tribal government records for each adjacent property where there has been a release of any hazardous substance or petroleum product that is likely to cause or contribute to a release or threatened release of any hazardous substance or petroleum product on the Subject Property.
- Interviews with the User of this ESA, regulatory personnel and current or former employees involved in operations on the Subject Property and surrounding properties.
- A visual Subject Property inspection of the subject property, including buildings, structures, equipment, utilities, pipelines, or other improvements, and of properties immediately adjacent to the Subject Property, noting sewer lines, runoff patterns, evidence of environmental impacts (e.g., stained soil, dead or stressed vegetation, dead or ill wildlife), and other observations that indicate actual or potential releases of hazardous substances or petroleum products. Subject Property photographs are presented in Appendix B.
- Identification of sources of contamination at the Subject Property and on adjacent properties that could migrate to the Subject Property.
- A physical inspection of properties adjacent to the Subject Property.

Significant Assumptions

PEC assumes that the purpose of this assessment is to provide appropriate inquiry into the previous ownership and use of the Subject Property consistent with good commercial and customary business practice in an effort to identify environmental risk associated with the Subject Property. PEC also assumes that the information provided by the Subject Property owner, the regulatory database provider, and the regulatory agencies is true and reliable.

Limitations and Exceptions of Assessment

The scope of work for this assessment did not include testing of electrical equipment for the potential presence of PCBs or collection of environmental samples. The scope of work did not include an assessment of natural hazards such as naturally occurring asbestos, radon gas or methane gas, an assessment for the potential release of radionuclides, an assessment of non-chemical hazards such as the potential for damage from earthquakes or floods, or an assessment of the presence of endangered species or wildlife habitats. This Phase One Environmental Site Assessment also did not include an extensive assessment of the environmental compliance status of the Subject Property or a health-based risk assessment.

ASTM E 1527-21 acknowledges that "No environmental site assessment can wholly eliminate uncertainty regarding the potential for recognized environmental conditions in connection with a property. Performance of this practice is intended to reduce, but not eliminate, uncertainty regarding the potential for recognized environmental conditions in connection with a property, and this practice recognizes reasonable limits of time and cost."

All appropriate inquiries does not mean an exhaustive assessment of a property. There is a point at which the cost of information obtained or the time required to gather it outweighs the usefulness of the information and, in fact, may be a material detriment to the orderly completion of transactions. One of the purposes of this practice is to identify a balance between the competing goals of limiting the costs and time demands inherent in performing an environmental site assessment and the reduction of uncertainty about unknown conditions resulting from additional information.

Special Terms and Conditions

This Phase One Site Assessment is not intended to identify all hazards or unsafe conditions or imply that others do not exist.

PEC has performed this assessment in a professional manner using the degree of skill and care exercised for similar projects under similar conditions by reputable and competent environmental consultants. PEC shall not be responsible for conditions or consequences arising from relevant facts that were concealed, withheld or not fully disclosed at the time that the assessment was conducted.

PEC did not identify any significant data gaps, as defined by ASTM that affected the ability to identify recognized environmental conditions in connection with the property.

User Reliance

This document was prepared for the sole use of Abode Communities, their advisors, successors, assignees and prospective lenders, and may be relied upon by such successor(s) or assignee(s) and lenders and investors. No other party should rely on the information contained herein without prior written consent of PEC. Our professional judgment to assess the potential for contamination is based on limited data; no other warranty is given or implied by this report.

The report is considered current only for a period of 180 days from the date of the beginning of our assessment. The conclusions presented in this report represent PEC's best professional judgment based upon the information available and conditions existing as of the date of this report. In performing its assignment, PEC must rely upon publicly available information, information provided by the client, and information provided by third parties. Accordingly, the conclusions in this report are valid only to the extent that the information provided to PEC was accurate and complete. This review is not intended as legal advice, nor is it an exhaustive review of Subject Property conditions or facility compliance. PEC makes no representations or warranties, expressed or implied, about the conditions of the Subject Property.

PEC's scope of work for this assignment did not include collecting samples of any environmental media. As such, this review cannot rule out the existence of latent conditions including contamination not identified and defined by the data and information available for PEC's review; however, this report is intended, consistent with normal standards of practice and care, to assist the client in identifying the risks of such latent conditions.

Physical Setting

A United States Geological Survey (USGS) 7.5 Minute Topographical Map (Seven Palms Valley Quadrangle) of the Subject Property and surrounding area is included in the appendices of the report. The Subject Property is located located in the northwestern portion of the Coachella Valley, a part of the Colorado Desert geomorphic province in Riverside County at an elevation of 913 feet above mean seal level.

One soil type is mapped in the area: Carsitas fine sand, 0% to 5% slopes (USDA 2019). The Carsitas series consists of very deep, somewhat excessively drained soils that are formed in alluvium from granitoid and/or gneissic rocks. These soils are typically found on alluvial fans, valleys, and drainage ways (USDA 2019). This soil series make up the entirety of the Subject Property.

Depth to groundwater in the vicinity of the Subject Property is expected to exceed 200 feet below ground surface based on our review of peer data from assessments that were conducted nearby. Groundwater flow is expected to be to the south, southeast.

General Site Setting

The Subject Property is located in a mixed-use area with municipal, institutional and retail uses in the immediate vicinity of the Subject Property.

Site Reconnaissance

Methodology and Limiting Conditions

The objective of the Subject Property reconnaissance was to obtain information indicating the likelihood of identifying recognized environmental conditions in connection with the property. PEC conducted a visit to the Subject Property and the surrounding areas on July 16, 2024. The weather was clear and there were no adverse conditions during the visit. There were no access restrictions to the property or limitations by physical obstructions or constraints.

Building Description

There are no permanent structures present on the Subject Property. The property is secured with chain link fencing and is vacant land. There is a small storm drain retention basin along the southwest corner of the site that was built in conjunction with the 2021 library construction project.

There were no indications of current storage tanks, odors, pools of liquids, drums, hazardous substances, petroleum product containers in use, unidentified substance containers or PCBs identified during our site inspection.

Current Use of the Site Property

The property is a fenced vacant lot.

There were no indications of solid waste disposal, excessive staining or stressed vegetation that would indicate environmental concerns for the Subject Property. There were no indications of septic systems, drains/sumps, pits/ponds/lagoons, or unnatural fill areas noted at the Subject Property. There was no evidence of water supply wells or monitoring wells noted during our site inspection.

Current Use of Adjacent Properties and Surrounding Areas

North of the Subject Property there is a retail shopping center anchored by a Vons Grocery Store. There is a Del Taco, McDonald's, Starbucks and several other small retailers and service businesses.

South of the Subject Property across Park Lane, there is an RV park, a City park with a soccer complex know as Mission Springs Park, a hotel and spa along Palm Drive to the southwest and the Desert Hot Springs Corporate Yard to the southeast.

East of the Subject Property there is a large parcel of land that is used as athletic fields for the Desert Springs Middle School, which is located adjacent to the northeast.

West of the Subject Property is occupied by the County of Riverside Behavioral Health and Nutrition Services offices and the Desert Hot Springs Library.

Historical Review

Historical Use Information on the Property

Sanborn Fire Insurance Maps

The Sanborn Map Company, the best known of the US fire-insurance map producers, has made maps since 1867. The fire insurance maps produced by Sanborn show building footprints, building material, height or number of stories, building use, lot lines, road widths and water facilities. The maps also show street names and property boundaries of the time. This collection of maps is historically significant as it is sometimes the best detailed map of a town or city dating from the mid 1800s. Sanborn maps are an excellent tool for reviewing historical uses of properties when available.

Sanborn Maps were not available for the Subject Property.

City Directories

Some forms of City Directories have been published for major cities and towns across the United States since the 18th century. Originally, the Directories published in the 20th century also included a street index. For each street address, the Directory listed—and, in some cases, still lists—the name of the resident or business operating from this address during a given year. City Directories are a valuable source of historical information with regard to site tenancy and use.

There were no listings for the Subject Property are residential in nature. None of the historical listings for the surrounding properties indicate concern for environmental impairment related to the historical occupants.

Historical Topographical Maps

Historical Topographical Maps for the Subject Property were reviewed for this assessment. There were no indications of any property use at the Subject Property that would suggest environmental concerns noted in the maps reviewed.

Copies of the Topographic Maps are included in Appendix D.

Historical Use Information on Adjoining Properties

North of the Subject Property there is a retail shopping center that was developed on previously vacant land in the early 1980s.

South of the Subject Property across Park Lane, there is an RV park that appears to have operated since the 1990s. There is also a City park with a soccer complex know as Mission Springs Park that was rededicated in 2009 with new soccer fields that originally opened in the 1990s. The hotel and spa along Palm Drive to the southwest of the site opened in the 1980s and the Desert Hot Springs Corporate Yard to the southeast has operated for several years on Mission Springs Water District Land.

East of the Subject Property there is a vacant parcel of land used as athletic fields and the Desert Springs Middle School, which is located to the northeast which opened in 1980.

West of the Subject Property is occupied by the County of Riverside Behavioral Health and Nutrition Services office building which was built about fifteen years ago and the Desert Hot Springs Library which opened in 2021 on formerly virgin land.

Interviews

Nicole Sanchez from the County of Riverside, the current owner of the property, was provided with and completed our ESA Questionnaire on July 9, 2024. She has indicated that she is not aware of any pending, threatened, or past litigation relevant to hazardous substances of petroleum products in, on or from the property; any pending, threatened, or past administrative proceedings relevant to hazardous substances or petroleum products in, on or from the property; and any notices from any governmental entity regarding any possible violation or environmental laws or possible liability relating to hazardous substances or petroleum products. She has indicated that the property has always been vacant land.

The Building Department, and Public Works were interviewed to establish the historical use of the Subject Property. The results of the interviews were consistent with the reported uses described herein. No one else was interviewed for this assessment.

Records Review & Regulatory Information

Standard Environmental Records Sources

PEC has reviewed federal, state, tribal and local database records for the Subject Property and surrounding properties. Records provide information on whether hazardous substances, wastes or petroleum products have been improperly handled, stored, or disposed of on or adjacent to the Subject Property.

The federal, state and tribal records review was accomplished through a computer database search of facilities, which appear on a series of government lists. The database search for the Subject Property and surrounding properties was performed for PEC by EDR. A copy of EDR's radius report dated July 2, 2024, is included in Appendix E of this Report. The databases were searched for properties with reported environmental issues within radii specified by ASTM Standard E1527-21, either by using geocoding information that identified the coordinates of the properties in the databases or by checking the street addresses of practically reviewable non-geocoded "orphan" properties within the same zip code. Facilities which are located beyond the specified search radii were not discussed as they are not considered potential environmental concerns due to their distances.

Our opinion is based on the information found in the database listings, through other historical and regulatory resources, "Standard Guide for Vapor Encroachment Screening on Property Involved in Real Estate Transactions" (ASTM E2600-15) and assumed groundwater depth and flow direction. Groundwater in the vicinity of the site is anticipated at a depth of over two hundred feet below ground surface and is expected to flow southeasterly based on site topography and peer reviewed data.

Using the ASTM definition of migration, PEC considers the migration of hazardous substances or petroleum products in any form onto the subject property during the evaluation of each site listed on the radius report, which includes solid, liquid, and vapor.

A brief discussion of select facilities and their database listings are included below. The full report provided by EDR can be found in Appendix E.

The Subject Property was not listed in any of the databases that were searched.

Federal RCRA Generator List

The EPA Resource Conservation and Recovery Act (RCRA) Program RCRA program identifies and tracks hazardous waste from the point of generation to the point of disposal. The RCRA Generators database is a compilation by the EPA of reporting facilities that generate hazardous waste.

According to the RCRIS facility list, there are one small quantity and two very small quantity RCRA Generators identified within one-quarter of a mile from the Subject Property. A review of the details for the sites did not reveal any violations that would have an effect on the environmental conditions of the Subject Property.

State Leaking Underground Storage Tank List (LUST)

The California Regional Water Quality Control Board compiles lists of all leaks of hazardous substances from underground storage tanks.

According to the state LUST/LUFT facility list, one LUST facilities is located within ½-mile of the Subject Property. The case is north of the site at DHS Chevron, 13900 Palm Drive and remedial work has been completed. Based on our review of the case files on the Geotracker website, this site is not expected to have had any impact on the environmental conditions of the Subject Property.

State Underground Storage Tank/Aboveground Storage Tank List (UST/AST)

The Underground Storage Tank and Above Ground Storage Tank databases contains registered USTs/ASTs. USTs and ASTs are regulated under Subtitle I of the Resource Conservation and Recovery Act (RCRA). The data come from the State Water Resources Control Board's Hazardous Substance Storage Container Database, and local oversight agencies.

There are five registered UST sites within one quarter of a mile of the Subject Property. None are expected to have an effect or impact on the environmental conditions of the Subject Property.

Non ASTM/AAI Regulatory Agency Records Review

Several additional databases were researched and reviewed in determining the presence of recognized environmental conditions on the Subject Property.

County of Riverside Department of Environmental Health

PEC submitted a records request to the Department of Environmental Health to determine if any records exist relating to the Subject Property. There are no files for the Subject Property.

PEC researched the SCAQMD FIND database to determine if any permits, notices to comply or notices of violations were issued to the Subject Property. The at the Santa Cruz Cottage at the Rancho San Antonio Boys Home is not listed on the Facility Information Detail database.

State of California

Department of Toxic Substances Control

PEC contacted the State of California Department of Toxic Substances Control to determine if any records exist relating to the Subject Property. There were no records for the at the Santa Cruz Cottage at the Rancho San Antonio Boys Home on file.

Colorado River Basin Regional Water Quality Control Board (CRBRWQCB)

PEC reviewed the records maintained by the RWQCB for the Subject Property to determine if any enforcement action has every taken place at the Subject Property. We also reviewed the Geotracker website that is maintained by the RWQCB. There were no records for the Subject Property or any of the adjacent properties on file.

State of California, Department of Conservation

Geologic Energy Management Division (CalGEM)

The Geologic Energy Management Division (CalGEM) formerly the Division of Oil, Gas, and Geothermal Resources (DOGGR), oversees the drilling, operation, maintenance, and plugging and abandonment of oil, natural gas, and geothermal energy wells. A review of the CalGEM maps did not indicate oil or gas exploration or production wells at the Subject Property or adjoining properties.

User Provided Information

ASTM E1527-21 describes responsibilities of the User to complete certain tasks in connection with the performance of "All Appropriate Inquiries" into the Property. The ASTM standard requires that the Environmental Professional request information from the User on the results of those tasks because that information can assist in the identification of RECs, CRECs, HRECs, or de minimis conditions in connection with the Property.

User Responsibilities

The United States Environmental Protection Agency (USEPA) All Appropriate Inquiry (AAI) and ASTM E 1527-21 Phase I Standards require that the user conduct independent research and consider certain information before purchasing a property:

- A recent title report prepared for the subject property. The report should be reviewed to obtain information regarding environmental clean-up liens or activity and use limitations (AULs) with regard to the Subject Property. If environmental cleanup liens or AULs encumbering the Subject Property or in connection with the subject property are identified, the user should provide that information to the Environmental Professional. If the user has actual knowledge of environmental cleanup liens or AULs encumbering the subject property or in connection with the subject property, the user should provide that information to the Environmental Professional.
- The user should provide the Environmental Professional with any specialized knowledge the user has with regard to recognized environmental conditions in connection with the property.
- If the user is aware of any commonly known information in the community about the subject property with respect to recognized environmental conditions, the user should provide the information to the Environmental Professional.
- If this ESA was prepared as due diligence for a property transaction, it is the responsibility of the user to consider the relationship of the purchase price to the fair market value of the property.
 If the purchase price is significantly lower than the fair market value, the user should identify the alternate reason for the low purchase price if the lower purchase price is not related to the property being affected by hazardous substances or petroleum products.

Title Records

PEC was provided with a preliminary title report for the Subject Property which indicates that title is vested in the County of Riverside. There was nothing in the title report that would indicate concern for the environmental conditions of the Subject Property.

Environmental Liens or Activity and Use Limitations

The ASTM standard clarifies that the environmental lien and AUL searches are not performed by the environmental professional (unless specifically contracted for in the engagement), but a requirement of each user of the Phase I ESA report. The standard also clarifies that the environmental professional's search of institutional and engineering control databases do not meet the intent of the rule for this component, but instead one must review (1) transaction-related title insurance documentation such as preliminary title reports and title commitments; or (2) title search information reports from third party vendors provided that the reports meet certain specifications.

The User was not aware of environmental liens associated with the Subject Property. An environmental lien search was not requested as a part of this ESA; however, based on our review of the Department of Toxic Substances Control (DTSC) EnviroStor Database, no environmental liens have been identified.

Specialized Knowledge or Experience of the User

The User was not aware of any specialized knowledge regarding the environmental conditions of the Subject Property.

Actual Knowledge or Experience of the User

The User has no knowledge of any environmental issues associated with the Subject Property.

Commonly Known or Reasonably Ascertainable Information

No commonly known or reasonably ascertainable information regarding the environmental conditions of the Subject Property was identified by the User for this assessment.

Reason for Significantly Lower Purchase Price

There does not appear to be a reduction in valuation for environmental issues associated with the Subject Property.

Degree of Obviousness

Per the ASTM Standard, the User must consider the degree of obviousness of the presence or likely presence of releases or threatened releases at the property and the ability to detect releases or threatened releases by appropriate investigation. Based on our discussions with the User, they have no reason to suspect releases on the Subject Property.

Owner, Property Manager, and Occupant Information

No negative information was reported regarding the environmental conditions of the Subject Property by the owners or the User. We were not in contact with the residential occupants of the site.

Reason for Performing Phase 1

The objective of this assessment was to provide an independent professional opinion regarding recognized environmental conditions, if any, associated with the Subject Property and/or such conditions that might have impacted the Subject Property from adjacent properties.

Previous Reports

There were no previous environmental reports made available to us for the Subject Property.

Non-ASTM Scope Items & Additional Services

The objective of Practice E1527 is to help users qualify for one of the CERCLA Landowner Liability Protections. Users should be aware that there are other federal, state, and local environmental laws and regulations that can impose liabilities and obligations on owners and operators of real property that are outside the scope of ASTM E1527-21. The following non-scope services were evaluated in conjunction with this ESA.

Vapor Encroachment Screening

ASTM defines a vapor encroachment condition (VEC) as the presence or likely presence of vapors from chemicals of concern (COC) in the subsurface of a property caused by the release of vapors on or near the property. As a "Tier 1" vapor encroachment screening, Pacific reviewed information obtained during the Phase 1 assessment, including the environmental database, visual observations of adjacent and nearby properties, geology, groundwater depth and flow direction, interviews of knowledgeable persons, known sources of contamination in the nearby vicinity, and prior subsurface testing results for the adjacent property to evaluate the likelihood of a VEC in connection with the Subject Property.

There are no known active sources of significant contamination within 500 feet of the subject property with chemicals of concern (COC) or large-quantity generators of potential COC within 150 feet. Based on the results of this Tier 1 screening, it appears reasonable to conclude that a VEC can be ruled out for the Subject Property.

Asbestos-Containing Building Materials

Asbestos is the name given to a number of naturally occurring, fibrous silicate minerals mined for their useful properties such as thermal insulation, chemical and thermal stability, and high tensile strength. The Occupational Safety and Health Administration (OSHA) regulation 29 CFR 1926.1101 requires certain construction materials to be presumed to contain asbestos, for purposes of this regulation. All thermal system insulation (TSI), surfacing material, and asphalt/vinyl flooring that are present in a building constructed prior to 1981 and have not been appropriately tested are "presumed asbestos-containing material" (PACM).

According to the US EPA, ACM and PACM that is intact and in good condition can, in general, be managed safely in-place under an Operations and Maintenance (O&M) Program until removal is dictated by renovation, demolition, or deteriorating material condition. Prior to any disturbance of the construction materials within this facility, a comprehensive ACM survey is required.

Asbestos abatement activities must be conducted in compliance with all applicable regulations, standards and generally accepted environmental and safety practices, including Federal OSHA (29 CFR 1926.58), EPA NESHAPS (40 CFR Part 61), and Toxic Substances Control Act (TSCA) Title II AHERA/ASHARA (40 CFR Part 763) Asbestos Regulations, the Occupational Safety and Health Administration, Asbestos Construction Standard, 29 CFR 1926.1101, and Title 8, California Code of Regulations Section 1529, Cal-OSHA Construction Standard.

Asbestos is not considered to be an environmental concern due to the lack of improvements at the Subject Property.

Lead-Based Paint

Lead is a highly toxic metal that affects virtually every system of the body. Lead-based paint (LBP) is defined as any paint, varnish, stain, or other applied coating that has 1 mg/cm₂ (or 5,000 ug/g or 0.5% by weight) or more of lead. Congress passed the Residential Lead-Based Paint Hazard Reduction Act of 1992, also known as "Title X", to protect families from exposure to lead from paint, dust, and soil. Under Section 1017 of Title X, intact LBP on most walls and ceilings is not considered a "hazard," although the condition of the paint should be monitored and maintained to ensure that it does not become deteriorated. Further, Section 1018 of this law directed the Housing and Urban Development (HUD) and the US EPA to require the disclosure of known information on LBP and LBP hazards before the sale or lease of most housing built before 1978.

Lead-based paint is not considered to be an environmental concern due to the lack of improvements at the Subject Property.

Radon

Radon is a radioactive gas that is found in certain geologic environments and is formed by the natural breakdown of radium, which is found in the earth's crust. A radon survey was not included within the scope of this investigation; however, the State of California Department of Health Services (DHS) conducted a statewide radon survey during 2016, which entailed testing of radon in homes in designated geographic areas.

Radon detection devices were placed in homes throughout the study region to determine geographic regions with elevated radon concentrations, The U.S. EPA has set the safety standard for radon gas in homes to be 4 pico Curies per liter (pCi/I). According to the DHS radon survey, and current correspondence with the DHS, radon concentrations in fifteen residences in the geographic region of the Subject Property (by zip code), none had elevated radon concentrations with a maximum reading of 2.3 pCi/I. Site-specific radon test will need to be conducted in order to provide site-specific radon level information.

Wetlands

Wetlands are part of the foundation of our nation's water resources and are vital to the health of waterways and communities that are downstream. Wetlands feed downstream waters, trap floodwaters, recharge groundwater supplies, remove pollution, and provide fish and wildlife habitat. Wetlands are also economic drivers because of their key role in fishing, hunting, agriculture and recreation.

Wetlands include swamps, marshes and bogs. Wetlands vary widely because of differences in soils, topography, climate, hydrology, water chemistry, vegetation, and other factors.

Wetlands are often found alongside waterways and in flood plains. However, some wetlands have no apparent connection to surface water like rivers, lakes or the ocean, but have critical groundwater connections.

Based on the current field reconnaissance and the Subject Property history research, the Subject Property is not located in an area where wetlands are a concern.

Methane

Methane is a colorless and extremely flammable gas. It is the primary component of natural gas. Natural sources of methane include termites, bodies of water, wildfires, and digestive processes of animals. Methane is released from coal deposits during underground and surface mining and from decomposition of waste. The Subject Property is not located in an area where methane is expected to be a concern for this property.

Mold

Molds are organisms that belong to the Fungi Kingdom. Molds are present virtually everywhere in the outdoor and indoor environments. Molds lack chlorophyll and must survive by digesting organic materials for food such as some types of building materials. To grow, molds require a food source and moisture. Molds can produce toxic substances called mycotoxins that may result in human health effects. Some compounds produced by molds are volatile and are released directly into the air. These are known as microbial volatile organic compounds (mVOCs). In addition, spores may contain allergens that can remain allergenic for years even if the mold is dead.

Fungal growth requires moisture, a food source, and fungal spores. Mold is not considered to be an environmental concern due to the lack of improvements at the Subject Property.

Lead in Drinking Water

Mission Springs Water District would be the purveyor that would provide drinking water the site if necessary and we reviewed their most recent Water Quality Report (2023) and they report that they met every primary and secondary state and federal water quality standard.

Flood Zones

PEC has reviewed the US Department of Homeland Security Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) Flood Insurance Rate Map (Map 06065C0905G) which indicates that the Subject Property is in an area with a reduced flood risk.

Per- and Polyfluoroalkyl Substances (PFAS)

PFAS are a class of approximately 4,700 synthetic chemicals that have been widely used in a variety of industrial and commercial processes since their introduction in the 1940s. They are mobile and water soluble, which allows them to travel vast distances, as well as thermally, chemically, and biologically stable. As a result, PFAS do not easily break down in the environment, earning them the moniker "forever chemicals." Although the toxicity of many PFAS compounds is still being analyzed, some compounds have been linked to adverse human health effects, including but not limited to cancer, hormone disruption, and low infant birth weights.

California is one of several states that are currently developing PFAS restrictions. Bans on PFAS in food wrappers, children's products, and firefighting foam will take effect in 2023. Additionally, proposed legislation would prohibit the sale of clothing or textiles containing PFAS and would require manufacturers to use the "least toxic alternative" when replacing PFAS in those products.

California has also taken steps towards regulating the amount of PFAS in drinking water. In the years leading up to 2021, the State Water Resources Control Board's Division of Drinking Water adopted "notification levels" and "response levels" for PFOA and PFOS that are applicable to public water supply purveyors. However, there is not yet a formal federal or California state drinking water standard (known as a maximum contaminant level or "MCL") for any PFAS compounds.

Until a substance is defined as a hazardous substance, it cannot be considered the reason for a REC. In our view, emerging contaminants are considered as a business concern and based on the fact that the Subject Property has never been developed and is not in an industrial area, PFAS are not expected to be a concern for this property.

Findings and Opinions

We have performed a Phase I Environmental Site Assessment in conformance with the scope and limitations of ASTM E-1527-21 (and Final Rule 40 CFR Part 312 et seq.) with respect to the property located at 14320 Palm Drive in the City of Desert Hot Springs, in the County of Riverside, California, California. Any exceptions to, or deletions from, this practice are described within this report.

Opinion

The site visit, a review of available regulatory agency information, historical use, discussions with persons knowledgeable about the Subject Property did not produce evidence of potential RECs at the Subject Property.

Our review of known cases of contamination found within a one-mile radius of the subject property found no reasons to suspect any off-site sources of contamination have adversely impacted the Subject Property.

Additional Investigations

No additional investigations were performed during this assessment.

Data Gaps

PEC did not identify any significant data gaps, as defined by ASTM that affected the ability to identify recognized environmental conditions in connection with the Subject Property.

Conclusions and Recommendations

A recognized environmental condition (REC) refers to the (1) the presence of hazardous substances or petroleum products in, on or at the subject property due to a release to the environment; (2) the likely presence of hazardous substances or petroleum products in, on or at the subject property due to a release or likely release to the environment; or (3) the presence of hazardous substances or petroleum products in, on or at the subject property under conditions that pose a material threat of a future release to the environment.

• PEC did not identify any RECs during the course of this assessment.

A controlled recognized environmental condition (CREC) is defined as "a recognized environmental condition affecting the subject property that has been addressed to the satisfaction of the applicable regulatory authority or authorities with hazardous substances or petroleum products allowed to remain in place subject to implementation of required controls (for example, activity and use limitations or other property use limitations).

• PEC did not identify any CRECs during the course of this assessment.

A historical recognized environmental condition (HREC) is defined as "a previous release of hazardous substances or petroleum products affecting the subject property that has been addressed to the satisfaction of the applicable regulatory authority or authorities and meeting unrestricted use criteria established by the applicable regulatory authority or authorities, without subjecting the property to any controls (for example activity and use limitations, or other property use limitations)."

• PEC did not identify any HRECs during the course of this assessment.

An environmental issue refers to environmental concerns identified, which do not qualify as RECs; however, warrant further discussion. PEC identified the following non-ASTM environmental issues associated with the Site:

• PEC did not identify any environmental issues during the course of this assessment.

Wire Fraud Alert

This Notice is not intended to provide legal or professional advice. If you have any questions, please consult with a lawyer.

All parties to a real estate transaction are targets for wire fraud and many have lost hundreds of thousands of dollars because they simply relied on the wire instructions received via email, without further verification. If funds are to be wired in conjunction with this real estate transaction, we strongly recommend verbal verification of wire instructions through a known, trusted phone number prior to sending funds.

In addition, the following non-exclusive self-protection strategies are recommended to minimize exposure to possible wire fraud.

- NEVER RELY on emails purporting to change wire instructions. Parties to a transaction rarely change wire instructions in the course of a transaction.
- ALWAYS VERIFY wire instructions, specifically the ABA routing number and account number, by calling the party who sent the instructions to you. DO NOT use the phone number provided in the email containing the instructions, use phone numbers you have called before or can otherwise verify. Obtain the phone number of relevant parties to the transaction as soon as an escrow account is opened. DO NOT send an email to verify as the email address may be incorrect or the email may be intercepted by the fraudster.
- USE COMPLEX EMAIL PASSWORDS that employ a combination of mixed case, numbers, and symbols. Make your passwords greater than eight (8) characters. Also, change your password often and do NOT reuse the same password for other online accounts.
- USE MULTI-FACTOR AUTHENTICATION for email accounts. Your email provider or IT staff may have specific instructions on how to implement this feature.

Relative elevation information between sites of close proximity should be field verified. Sites with an elevation equal to or higher than the target property have been differentiated below from sites with an elevation lower than the target property. Page numbers and map identification numbers refer to the EDR Radius Map report where detailed data on individual sites can be reviewed.

Sites listed in bold italics are in multiple databases.

Unmappable (orphan) sites are not considered in the foregoing analysis.

Lists of Federal RCRA generators

RCRA-SQG: RCRAInfo is EPA's comprehensive information system, providing access to data supporting the Resource Conservation and Recovery Act (RCRA) of 1976 and the Hazardous and Solid Waste Amendments (HSWA) of 1984. The database includes selective information on sites which generate, transport, store, treat and/or dispose of hazardous waste as defined by the Resource Conservation and Recovery Act (RCRA). Small quantity generators (SQGs) generate between 100 kg and 1,000 kg of hazardous waste per month.

A review of the RCRA-SQG list, as provided by EDR, and dated 06/03/2024 has revealed that there is 1 RCRA-SQG site within approximately 0.25 miles of the target property.

EDR HIGH RISK HISTORICAL RECORDS

EDR Exclusive Records

EDR Hist Cleaner: EDR has searched selected national collections of business directories and has collected listings of potential dry cleaner sites that were available to EDR researchers. EDR's review was limited to those categories of sources that might, in EDR's opinion, include dry cleaning establishments. The categories reviewed included, but were not limited to dry cleaners, cleaners, laundry, laundromat, cleaning/laundry, wash & dry etc. This database falls within a category of information EDR classifies as "High Risk Historical Records", or HRHR. EDR's HRHR effort presents unique and sometimes proprietary data about past sites and operations that typically create environmental concerns, but may not show up in current government records searches.

A review of the EDR Hist Cleaner list, as provided by EDR, has revealed that there is 1 EDR Hist Cleaner site within approximately 0.125 miles of the target property.

Lists of Federal NPL (Superfund) sites

NPL: National Priority List

National Priorities List (Superfund). The NPL is a subset of CERCLIS and identifies over 1,200 sites for priority cleanup under the Superfund Program. NPL sites may encompass relatively large areas. As such, EDR provides polygon coverage for over 1,000 NPL site boundaries produced by EPA's Environmental Photographic Interpretation Center (EPIC) and regional EPA offices.

SEMS: Superfund Enterprise Management System

SEMS (Superfund Enterprise Management System) tracks hazardous waste sites, potentially hazardous waste sites, and remedial activities performed in support of EPA's Superfund Program across the United States. The list was formerly know as CERCLIS, renamed to SEMS by the EPA in 2015. The list contains data on potentially hazardous waste sites that have been reported to the USEPA by states, municipalities, private companies and private persons, pursuant to Section 103 of the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation, and Liability Act (CERCLA). This dataset also contains sites which are either proposed to or on the National Priorities List (NPL) and the sites which are in the screening and assessment phase for possible inclusion on the NPL.

Lists of Federal CERCLA sites with NFRAP

SEMS-ARCHIVE: Superfund Enterprise Management System Archive

SEMS-ARCHIVE (Superfund Enterprise Management System Archive) tracks sites that have no further interest under the Federal Superfund Program based on available information. The list was formerly known as the CERCLIS-NFRAP, renamed to SEMS ARCHIVE by the EPA in 2015. EPA may perform a minimal level of assessment work at a site while it is archived if site conditions change and/or new information becomes available. Archived sites have been removed and archived from the inventory of SEMS sites. Archived status indicates that, to the best of EPA's knowledge, assessment at a site has been completed and that EPA has determined no further steps will be taken to list the site on the National Priorities List (NPL), unless information indicates this decision was not appropriate or other considerations require a recommendation for listing at a later time. The decision does not necessarily mean that there is no hazard associated with a given site; it only means that. based upon available information, the location is not judged to be potential NPL site.

Local Brownfield lists

US BROWNFIELDS: A Listing of Brownfields Sites

Brownfields are real property, the expansion, redevelopment, or reuse of which may be complicated by the presence or potential presence of a hazardous substance, pollutant, or contaminant. Cleaning up and reinvesting in these properties takes development pressures off of undeveloped, open land, and both improves and protects the environment. Assessment, Cleanup and Redevelopment Exchange System (ACRES) stores information reported by EPA Brownfields grant recipients on brownfields properties assessed or cleaned up with grant funding as well as information on Targeted Brownfields Assessments performed by EPA Regions. A listing of ACRES Brownfield sites is obtained from Cleanups in My Community provides information on Brownfields properties for which information is reported back to EPA, as well as areas served by Brownfields grant programs.

DEED: Deed Restriction Listing

Site Mitigation and Brownfields Reuse Program Facility Sites with Deed Restrictions & Hazardous Waste Management Program Facility Sites with Deed / Land Use Restriction. The DTSC Site Mitigation and Brownfields Reuse Program (SMBRP) list includes sites cleaned up under the program's oversight and generally does not include current or former hazardous waste facilities that required a hazardous waste facility permit. The list represents deed restrictions that are active. Some sites have multiple deed restrictions. The DTSC Hazardous Waste Management Program (HWMP) has developed a list of current or former hazardous waste facilities that have a recorded land use restriction at the local county recorder's office. The land use restrictions on this list were required by the DTSC HWMP as a result of the presence of hazardous substances that remain on site after the facility (or part of the facility) has been closed or cleaned up. The types of land use restriction include deed notice, deed restriction, or a land use restriction that binds current and future owners.

EPA WATCH LIST: EPA Watch List

EPA maintains a "Watch List" to facilitate dialogue between EPA, state and local environmental agencies on enforcement matters relating to facilities with alleged violations identified as either significant or high priority. Being on the Watch List does not mean that the facility has actually violated the law only that an investigation by EPA or a state or local environmental agency has led those organizations to allege that an unproven violation has in fact occurred. Being on the Watch List does not represent a higher level of concern regarding the alleged violations that were detected, but instead indicates cases requiring additional dialogue between EPA, state and local agencies - primarily because of the length of time the alleged violation has gone unaddressed or unresolved.

2020 COR ACTION: 2020 Corrective Action Program List

The EPA has set ambitious goals for the RCRA Corrective Action program by creating the 2020 Corrective Action Universe. This RCRA cleanup baseline includes facilities expected to need corrective action. The 2020 universe contains a wide variety of sites. Some properties are heavily contaminated while others were contaminated but have since been cleaned up. Still others have not been fully investigated yet, and may require little or no remediation. Inclusion in the 2020 Universe does not necessarily imply failure on the part of a facility to meet its RCRA obligations.

RMP: Risk Management Plans

When Congress passed the Clean Air Act Amendments of 1990, it required EPA to publish regulations and guidance for chemical accident prevention at facilities using extremely hazardous substances. The Risk Management Program Rule (RMP Rule) was written to implement Section 112(r) of these amendments. The rule, which built upon existing industry codes and standards, requires companies of all sizes that use certain flammable and toxic substances to develop a Risk Management Program, which includes a(n): Hazard assessment that details the potential effects of an accidental release, an accident history of the last five years, and an evaluation of worst-case and alternative accidental releases; Prevention program that includes safety precautions and maintenance, monitoring, and employee training measures; and Emergency response program that spells out emergency health care, employee training measures and procedures for informing the public and response agencies (e.g the fire department) should an accident occur.

US AIRS (AFS): Aerometric Information Retrieval System Facility Subsystem (AFS)

The database is a sub-system of Aerometric Information Retrieval System (AIRS). AFS contains compliance data on air pollution point sources regulated by the U.S. EPA and/or state and local air regulatory agencies. This information comes from source reports by various stationary sources of air pollution, such as electric power plants, steel mills, factories, and universities, and provides information about the air pollutants they produce. Action, air program, air program pollutant, and general level plant data. It is used to track emissions and compliance data from industrial plants.

ABANDONED MINES: Abandoned Mines

An inventory of land and water impacted by past mining (primarily coal mining) is maintained by OSMRE to provide information needed to implement the Surface Mining Control and Reclamation Act of 1977 (SMCRA). The inventory contains information on the location, type, and extent of AML impacts, as well as, information on the cost associated with the reclamation of those problems. The inventory is based upon field surveys by State, Tribal, and OSMRE program officials. It is dynamic to the extent that it is modified as new problems are identified and existing problems are reclaimed.

These keywords were searched for in the following text fields: Manifest handling instructions (MANIFEST_HANDLING_INSTR), Non-hazardous waste description (NON_HAZ_WASTE_DESCRIPTION), DOT printed information (DOT_PRINTED_INFORMATION), Waste line handling instructions (WASTE_LINE_HANDLING_INSTR), Waste residue comments (WASTE_RESIDUE_COMMENTS).

PFAS NPDES: Clean Water Act Discharge Monitoring Information

Any discharger of pollutants to waters of the United States from a point source must have a National Pollutant Discharge Elimination System (NPDES) permit. The process for obtaining limits involves the regulated entity (permittee) disclosing releases in a NPDES permit application and the permitting authority (typically the state but sometimes EPA) deciding whether to require monitoring or monitoring with limits. Caveats and Limitations: Less than half of states have required PFAS monitoring for at least one of their permittees and fewer states have established PFAS effluent limits for permittees. New rulemakings have been initiated that may increase the number of facilities monitoring for PFAS in the future.

PFAS PT 139 AIRPORT: All Certified Part 139 Airports PFAS Information Listing

Since July 1, 2006, all certified part 139 airports are required to have fire-fighting foam onsite that meet military specifications (MIL-F-24385) (14 CFR 139.317). To date, these military specification fire-fighting foams are fluorinated and have been historically used for training and extinguishing. The 2018 FAA Reauthorization Act has a provision stating that no later than October 2021, FAA shall not require the use of fluorinated AFFF. This provision does not prohibit the use of fluorinated AFFF at Part 139 civilian airports; it only prohibits FAA from mandating its use. The Federal Aviation Administration?s document AC 150/5210-6D - Aircraft Fire Extinguishing Agents provides guidance on Aircraft Fire Extinguishing Agents, which includes Aqueous Film Forming Foam (AFFF).

EDR Exclusive Records

EDR MGP: EDR Proprietary Manufactured Gas Plants

The EDR Proprietary Manufactured Gas Plant Database includes records of coal gas plants (manufactured gas plants) compiled by EDR's researchers. Manufactured gas sites were used in the United States from the 1800's to 1950's to produce a gas that could be distributed and used as fuel. These plants used whale oil, rosin, coal, or a mixture of coal, oil, and water that also produced a significant amount of waste. Many of the byproducts of the gas production, such as coal tar (oily waste containing volatile and non-volatile chemicals), sludges, oils and other compounds are potentially hazardous to human health and the environment. The byproduct from this process was frequently disposed of directly at the plant site and can remain or spread slowly, serving as a continuous source of soil and groundwater contamination.

EDR Hist Auto: EDR Exclusive Historical Auto Stations

EDR has searched selected national collections of business directories and has collected listings of potential gas station/filling station/service station sites that were available to EDR researchers. The categories reviewed included, but were not limited to gas, gas station, gasoline station, filling station, auto, automobile repair, auto service station, service station, etc. This database falls within a category of information EDR classifies as "High Risk Historical Records", or HRHR. EDR's HRHR effort presents unique and sometimes proprietary data about past sites and operations that typically create environmental concerns, but may not show up in current government records searches.

OTHER DATABASE(S)

Depending on the geographic area covered by this report, the data provided in these specialty databases may or may not be complete. For example, the existence of wetlands information data in a specific report does not mean that all wetlands in the area covered by the report are included. Moreover, the absence of any reported wetlands information does not necessarily mean that wetlands do not exist in the area covered by the report.

Sensitive Receptors: There are individuals deemed sensitive receptors due to their fragile immune systems and special sensitivity to environmental discharges. These sensitive receptors typically include the elderly, the sick, and children. While the location of all sensitive receptors cannot be determined, EDR indicates those buildings and facilities - schools, daycares, hospitals, medical centers, and nursing homes - where individuals who are sensitive receptors are likely to be located.

EDR's GeoCheck Physical Setting Source Addendum is provided to assist the environmental professional in forming an opinion about the impact of potential contaminant migration.

Assessment of the impact of contaminant migration generally has two principle investigative components:

- 1. Groundwater flow direction, and
- 2. Groundwater flow velocity.

Groundwater flow direction may be impacted by surface topography, hydrology, hydrogeology, characteristics of the soil, and nearby wells. Groundwater flow velocity is generally impacted by the nature of the geologic strata.

GROUNDWATER FLOW DIRECTION INFORMATION

Groundwater flow direction for a particular site is best determined by a qualified environmental professional using site-specific well data. If such data is not reasonably ascertainable, it may be necessary to rely on other sources of information, such as surface topographic information, hydrologic information, hydrogeologic data collected on nearby properties, and regional groundwater flow information (from deep aquifers).

TOPOGRAPHIC INFORMATION

Surface topography may be indicative of the direction of surficial groundwater flow. This information can be used to assist the environmental professional in forming an opinion about the impact of nearby contaminated properties or, should contamination exist on the target property, what downgradient sites might be impacted.

TARGET PROPERTY TOPOGRAPHY

General Topographic Gradient: General SSE

SURROUNDING TOPOGRAPHY: ELEVATION PROFILES

Source: Topography has been determined from the USGS 7.5' Digital Elevation Model and should be evaluated on a relative (not an absolute) basis. Relative elevation information between sites of close proximity should be field verified.

HYDROLOGIC INFORMATION

Surface water can act as a hydrologic barrier to groundwater flow. Such hydrologic information can be used to assist the environmental professional in forming an opinion about the impact of nearby contaminated properties or, should contamination exist on the target property, what downgradient sites might be impacted.

Refer to the Physical Setting Source Map following this summary for hydrologic information (major waterways and bodies of water).

HYDROGEOLOGIC INFORMATION

Hydrogeologic information obtained by installation of wells on a specific site can often be an indicator of groundwater flow direction in the immediate area. Such hydrogeologic information can be used to assist the environmental professional in forming an opinion about the impact of nearby contaminated properties or, should contamination exist on the target property, what downgradient sites might be impacted.

EDR has developed the AQUIFLOW Information System to provide data on the general direction of groundwater flow at specific points. EDR has reviewed reports submitted by environmental professionals to regulatory authorities at select sites and has extracted the date of the report, groundwater flow direction as determined hydrogeologically, and the depth to water table.

GENERAL DIRECTION GROUNDWATER FLOW

GROUNDWATER FLOW VELOCITY INFORMATION

Groundwater flow velocity information for a particular site is best determined by a qualified environmental professional using site specific geologic and soil strata data. If such data are not reasonably ascertainable, it may be necessary to rely on other sources of information, including geologic age identification, rock stratigraphic unit and soil characteristics data collected on nearby properties and regional soil information. In general, contaminant plumes move more quickly through sandy-gravelly types of soils than silty-clayey types of soils.

GEOLOGIC INFORMATION IN GENERAL AREA OF TARGET PROPERTY

Geologic information can be used by the environmental professional in forming an opinion about the relative speed at which contaminant migration may be occurring.

TOPOGRAPHIC INFORMATION

USGS 7.5' Digital Elevation Model (DEM)

Source: United States Geologic Survey

EDR acquired the USGS 7.5' Digital Elevation Model in 2002 and updated it in 2006. The 7.5 minute DEM corresponds to the USGS 1:24,000- and 1:25,000-scale topographic quadrangle maps. The DEM provides elevation data with consistent elevation units and projection.

HYDROLOGIC INFORMATION

Flood Zone Data: This data was obtained from the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA). It depicts 100-year and 500-year flood zones as defined by FEMA. It includes the National Flood Hazard Layer (NFHL) which incorporates Flood Insurance Rate Map (FIRM) data and Q3 data from FEMA in areas not covered by NFHL.

HYDROGEOLOGIC INFORMATION

AQUIFLOW^R Information System

Source: EDR proprietary database of groundwater flow information

EDR has developed the AQUIFLOW Information System (AIS) to provide data on the general direction of groundwater flow at specific points. EDR has reviewed reports submitted to regulatory authorities at select sites and has extracted the date of the report, hydrogeologically determined groundwater flow direction and depth to water table information.

STATSGO: State Soil Geographic Database

Source: Department of Agriculture, Natural Resources Conservation Service (NRCS) The U.S. Department of Agriculture's (USDA) Natural Resources Conservation Service (NRCS) leads the national Conservation Soil Survey (NCSS) and is responsible for collecting, storing, maintaining and distributing soil survey information for privately owned lands in the United States. A soil map in a soil survey is a representation of soil patterns in a landscape. Soil maps for STATSGO are compiled by generalizing more detailed (SSURGO) soil survey maps.

SSURGO: Soil Survey Geographic Database

Source: Department of Agriculture, Natural Resources Conservation Service (NRCS) Telephone: 800-672-5559

SSURGO is the most detailed level of mapping done by the Natural Resources Conservation Service, mapping scales generally range from 1:12,000 to 1:63,360. Field mapping methods using national standards are used to construct the soil maps in the Soil Survey Geographic (SSURGO) database. SSURGO digitizing duplicates the original soil survey maps. This level of mapping is designed for use by landowners, townships and county natural resource planning and management.

Groundwater Ambient Monitoring & Assessment Program

State Water Resources Control Board

Telephone: 916-341-5577

The GAMA Program is Californias comprehensive groundwater quality monitoring program. GAMA collects data by testing the untreated, raw water in different types of wells for naturally-occurring and man-made chemicals. The GAMA data includes Domestic, Monitoring and Municipal well types from the following sources, Department of Water Resources, Department of Heath Services, EDF, Agricultural Lands, Lawrence Livermore National Laboratory, Department of Pesticide Regulation, United States Geological Survey, Groundwater Ambient Monitoring and Assessment Program and Local Groundwater Projects.

Department of Conservation

Telephone: 916-445-9686

Geothermal well means a well constructed to extract or return water to the ground after it has been used for heating or cooling purposes. Geothermal wells in California (except for wells on federal leases which are administered by the Bureau of Land Management) are permitted, drilled, operated, and permanently sealed and closed (plugged and abandoned) under requirements and procedures administered by the Geothermal Section of the Department of Conservations Geologic Energy Management Division (CalGEM, formerly DOGGR).
