To Whom it May Concern,

The San Bernardino County Land Use Services Department is requesting to withdraw the Lynx Persistence Mine Reclamation Plan IS/MND (SCH # 2025070443) submitted July 10, 2025. The withdrawal request is due to outdated studies being uploaded and a superseding study being left out of initial submittal.

Subsequently, the San Bernardino County Land Use Services Department has re-submitted the IS/MND document with all appropriate attachments and corrected NOI and NOC documents on July 16, 2025, with an effective date of July 17, 2025. This re-submittal will allow all appropriate documents to be reviewed and provide the public their 30-day review and comment period.
