Project Description

Project Title: Lytle Creek Gatehouse Repairs
Project Location: Lytle Creek Gatehouse is located at the junction of Foothill Boulevard and W 5th Street in the city of San Bernardino, situated within San Bernardino County.
Project Description: The project involves repairs to the Lytle Creek Gatehouse, a facility owned and maintained by the San Bernardino County Flood Control District, following damage primarily caused by vandalism. The scope of work includes replacement of damaged electrical wiring, breakers, panels, outlets, and electrical components. Additional work may include minor structural and appurtenant repairs necessary to restore the facility to a safe and functional condition. All work will occur within the existing structure and footprint of the gatehouse, with ground disturbance or expansion of use.
