Consolidation of Armstrong Elementary School into Golden Springs Elementary School Project
Project Title

Armstrong Elementary School: 22750 Beaverhead Drive, Diamond Bar, California 91765

Golden Springs Elementary School: 245 South Ballena Drive, Diamond Bar, California 91765

Project Location - Specific

Diamond Bar

Los Angeles

Project Location - City

Project Location - County

The Pomona Unified School District (District) will close Armstrong Elementary School (ES) and transfer all students to the existing Golden Springs ES. The proposed consolidation will not require physical improvements to Golden Springs ES, and no physical improvements, use, or development will occur at Armstrong ES. The proposed consolidation will transfer 215 students (2025-2026 school year) from Armstrong ES to Golden Springs ES, which has an enrollment of 388 students (2025-2026 school year). Golden Springs ES has a capacity of 870. The proposed consolidation will occur during Summer 2026, and be in effect for the 2026-2027 school year.

The proposed project will not increase enrollment in the District, and is proposed to address declining enrollment and ensure the efficient allocation of resources. The District's students, staff, and surrounding community will benefit from a more efficient allocation of school and educational resources.
