Document Description

The California Fish and Game Commission (Commission) proposes to amend Title 14 sections maintain consistency with recent statutory changes for recreational and commercial trapping. The amendments to the trapping regulations are designed to 1) provide consistency and conformity to current statutes as it is now unlawful to trap any furbearing mammal or nongame mammal for purposes of recreation or commerce in fur or sell the raw fur of any fur-bearing mammal or nongame mammal otherwise lawfully taken, and 2) make minor conforming changes to increase the clarity and consistency of these regulations.

The Commission will consider this action at its scheduled October 13-16, 2026 meeting. Background information and information on public participation may be found at https://fgc.ca.gov/Meetings/2026.
