Project Title: General Plan Healthy People and Healthy Places Element Update: Addendum to the General Plan Environmental Impact Report

Project Applicant: City of Burlingame

Project Location: City of Burlingame

Project Description: The proposed project is an update to the Healthy People and Healthy Places Element to ensure the element meet the current requirements of California Government Code Section 65302(h), which adopts Senate Bill 1000, the Planning for Healthy Communities Act passed in 2016, which requires local jurisdictions in California to incorporate environmental justice into the General Plan.

The Healthy People and Healthy Places Element covers the following health-related topics: public health; air quality and greenhouse gas reduction; public facilities access; food access; parks, open space and recreation; biological resources; water resources; and scenic resources. The proposed goals and policies and revisions to existing goals and policies included as part of this update are intended to guide decisions regarding increasing access and education to support public health; reducing exposure to air pollution; increasing access to public facilities that support health and healthy lifestyles, such as active transportation infrastructure and parks; increasing access to healthy food; and promoting access to safe drinking water. Adoption of the update would not result in an increase in development capacity in the planning area or result in direct physical changes to the environment.

A Technical Appendix for the Healthy People and Healthy Places Element was prepared as part of the proposed project. The technical appendix identifies Equity-Focus Areas in the City of Burlingame, describes the major environmental justice issues facing each of these areas, and describes the Equity-Focus Area identification process. The City proposes to amend the General Plan by including the text and figure updates to the Healthy People and Healthy Places update as well as adding the Technical Appendix for the City of Burlingame Healthy People and Healthy Places Element.

This is to advise that the City of Burlingame has approved the above-described project on November 2, 2026.
